Facts of complaint
 CPD [redacted] Evidence Tech., advised that on 6-9-91 he collected a note that was attached to the door by a piece of wire at the Marquette Restaurant 60 W. Adams. The note read "Senator Paul Simon, Kill Mafia, James [redacted] Brady." Attached to the note was a live .357 round. On 6-10-91 the exact same note and another live .357 round was found attached by wire to the door of the Amalgamated Bank, 1 W. Monroe. [redacted] advised that the two notes and shell casings were sent to the CPD lab for further examination. [redacted] advised that if he is out, a Sergeant [redacted] can also be contacted.

VICTIM'S NAME PAUL SIMON	DISTRICT AREA 1	DATE OF THIS REPORT 6 AUGUST 1991
DEFENDANT'S NAME	LABORATORY UNIT DOCUMENT UNIT

EVIDENCE SUBMITTED:

The following exhibits were received in the Document Unit of the Crime Laboratory on 6 August 1991 under Inventory number 910780:

Q1 One piece of manila paper measuring approximately 2" X 6 1/2" bearing questioned hand printing

The following exhibits were received in the Document Unit of the Crime Laboratory on 6 August 1991 under Inventory number 910782:

Q2 One piece of manila paper measuring approximately 2 1/2" X 5" bearing questioned hand printing.

REQUEST:

Whether the questioned hand printing on Exhibits Q1 and Q2 was written by the same writer.

FINDINGS:

Based upon the limited examination possible, pictorial similarities were noted throughout the questioned exhibits which indicate possible common authorship, however, the block-style hand printing used to prepare exhibits Q1 and Q2 precluded a more definite conclusion.

DISPOSITION OF EVIDENCE:

The evidence listed under Inventory numbers 910780 and 910782 is being forwarded to the Evidence and Recovered Property Section.

Reference Chicago teletype to the Bureau on 7/3/91.

On 8/6/91 [redacted] Document Examiner, Chicago Police Department (CPD), Crime Laboratory Division, examined the two notes recovered in a lost and found incident under CPD report number P266380. The finding of the examination were limited to noting that there were pictorial similarities noted throughout the questioned exhibits which indicated possible common authorship. Since the notes were written in block style hand printing the examination precluded a more definite conclusion.
